

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

Statement from Acting OMB Director Russ Vought:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Delegation of Authority to Approve Certain Military Decorations”

This executive order clarifies that the Secretaries of the military departments and the Secretary of Homeland Security have the authority to approve and award certain military decorations on behalf of the President. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include the formalization of longstanding practice with respect to certain award authorities. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2018. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of Defense and Homeland Security.
